Manhattan Psychological Association

 invites you to attend a talk by

Jessica Henderson Daniel, Ph.D. ABPP

Associate Professor of Psychology Department of Psychiatry
Harvard Medical School and one of the candidates for president-elect of APA

Moving from At Risk to At Promise: Multicultural Perspectives on the Power of Words in Psychotherapy, Education and Research

Oct 19th, 2014, Sunday at 1 PM
Fordham University, 155 West 60 St., Room 109, NYC

*Admission Free to MPA members and Students with ID; A small donation is requested from non-members (can be used towards the 1st year MPA membership dues of $35)

Chair: Henry Solomon (President, Manhattan Psychological Association)
Discussant: Dean Elaine Congress, (Fordham Graduate Social Service Div.)
Discussant: TBA
Discussant: TBA

 This panel is hosted by the Manhattan Psychological Association, in cooperation with Fordham Graduate School of Social Service and [NYSPA divisional co-sponsors TBA]*

All are welcome. Beverages will be served. For details contact Dr. Solomon at profsolom@aol.com