We are each thankful that we have been given a good start in life by our families and our community. The wonderful but desperately poor children in Managua, Nicaragua deserve the same resources so that they can reach their potential; however, their parents and their community are simply unable to provide these opportunities. Dr. Nour Sirker, with his Fundación el Samaritano, provides a good start and a quality Christian education to over 400 of these underprivileged children each year. To do this, Nour relies solely upon the help of an ecumenical and cross-cultural effort that we have been blessed to be a part of.

Since 2000, parishioners from The Church of St. Michael & St. George, the Church of the Good Shepherd, and others joining us in this mission have raised funds for and traveled to Nicaragua to support Dr. Sirker's mission by delivering construction funding, school and medical supplies, warm smiles, helping hands, and hope. Your participation and generosity can make an extraordinary impact for these children – won't you please join us?
