A Little More About Our Speaker

A retired Army Sergeant Major, Fr. Tucker was a member of the United States Army Chorus, the last all-male choral ensemble in the military today, which is a part of the United States Army Band (Pershing's Own), Washington, D.C. In addition to his musical activities with the Chorus, Fr. Tucker also had a solo singing career, appearing with symphony orchestras in the United States and abroad, and was active in the musical life of Washington National Cathedral for many years. A native of Nebraska, Fr. Tucker was raised in an evangelical/fundamental tradition, and discovered the richness of the Anglican tradition as a young adult. A graduate of Virginia Theological Seminary, he has taken additional studies at Nashotah House seminary in Wisconsin. Married to the former Deborah Kinney, Fr. Tucker is the proud father of two daughters, two granddaughters, and a grandson. He and his wife are awaiting the birth of another grandson at the end of April. His leisure time interests include bicycle riding, old fire trucks, and trains (pray for his wife, please!).
