

The Benefit Bank of South Carolina: Connecting Communities. Providing Resources.

With iPads, text messaging, document repository, and other technology; we are expanding access to needed resources throughout SC. Innovative technology means reaching people who are often unattainable. Learn how these resources help stabilize the financial, health, and household of families while causing a boost to local economies.