

Laura Pausini Returns to Chicago

International pop superstar and winner of over 81 major awards including Grammys, World Music awards and Billboard Chart Toppers, Laura Pausini will return to Chicago October 23rd. This very rare Chicago appearance comes at the hands of local entertainment pro Ron Onesti, who produces over two hundred shows annually, including recent projects with other Italian favorites, Zucchero and Il Volo.

"I am so thrilled to be bringing Laura here," Onesti said. "She, along with Eros Ramazotti, have been two superstars I have been trying to bring home to Chicago. I am so proud of my heritage and to be able to foster the Italian culture in my home town is a personal achievement that means so much to me."

Pausini is also extremely popular in the Latin community as she has won numerous awards all over the world, especially in Latin America. Many of her Latin releases have gone gold, also garnering a Latin Billboard Award.

To celebrate her 20th anniversary, Warner Music released "La Solitudine - La Soledad - Loneliness / Medley 2013", the three original versions of her first single released, newly mixed. She has also recently performed on albums by Josh Groban and Gloria Estefan.

Tickets to "Laura Pausini-20th Anniversary All-Hits Tour" at The Chicago Theatre are $69-$150 and are on sale now at www.ticketmaster.com.
