CONSULTATION QUESTIONS

1. What areas should CWLC focus on in the next five to ten years in Aboriginal child and family services?
2. Who should our key partners be? Should the partnerships be developed based on geographic representation or based on issue-specific expertise, or both?
3. What can CWLC do to be most effective while being aware of the work being done by Indigenous agencies?
4. Are there any specific initiatives or subject areas that CWLC should support?
5. Aside from programming and partnership development initiatives as discussed above, are there initiatives that CWLC should be involved with?
