

The Fall 2011 Toy Awards

Ugly Charlie

Ugly Charlie is a twelve-inch stage hog, according to his bio. His bio says that this hot pink plush "likes to take center stage whenever he can." We imagine that a puppet show performed with such a large personality might be a lot of fun.

Basheeshee

Big-eared Basheeshee, brother to Big Toe, is huge, "not in size or muscle mass like his also blue bro, but in his capacity for love, caring, understanding, and letting his ears down." His bio also says that "Math is his favorite art class!" Let this Little Ugly (7" tall), charm you.

Suddy

Suddy is an Ugly Doll with a well-defined personality. Her bio says that the 7" plush is "a very busy girl with a lot going on", and that if you play with her you'll be "waking up in the morning and going to be having lived your life to the fullest." Ugly Doll bios can provide a great starting point for playing with the dolls.

Groody

Bright-green Groody, a new Ugly Doll, is stressed out. The bio for this 12" plush says: "If you are willing to help him on his quest for inner peace he will help you on your quest for whatever dealio you got going."

Brad Luck

Brad Luck is Citizen #1 of the Uglyverse. His bio tells you that he's a pretty lucky guy, and it offers a story that you and him will both know is silly. Have fun creating other silly stories for this 10" plush.

Ugly Doll Wind-Up Toys

Ugly Dolls has introduced a line of charming and durable wind-up toys. Babo and Trunko will perform endless back flips for you, as long as you keep them wound up. Ice-Bat hops happily across tables, and Big Toe shuffles from side to side. Ox wags moneybags and walks forward. Peaco is a waterproof champion swimmer. Each of these will get giggles going, and they're perfect as party favors or stocking stuffers.
