FINANCIAL

As a client or friend of Cross Insurance, we are not only concerned about your protection, but helping you best prepare for your financial future is also very important to us. Because of this, we have developed a key strategic alliance with the Northern New England Agency, a general agency of financial services professionals from a local Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company (MassMutual). These professionals can help you evaluate your current financial situation and prepare for your future needs, through the use of innovated strategies such as Insurance Planning, Business Succession Planning, Retirement Planning and Estate Planning.
