But in your hearts revere Christ as Lord. Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have. But do this with gentleness and respect, 16 keeping a clear conscience, so that those who speak maliciously against your good behavior in Christ may be ashamed of their slander. 1 Peter 3:15-16 (NIV)

"Today, for the average Christian, the watch-word in apologetics isn't debate—its dialogue."

"So many people who are not Christians are only one question away from faith. They've got a question that's a hang-up. It's an issue that's bothered them, an objection. And once we can help them find an answer to that, they make huge progress in their spiritual journey."

"Apologetics is being done. The question is, are the reasons we are giving for the hope within us truly the reasons that meet both the mind and the heart, and are we doing it in the proper way, with gentleness and respect? The church of today would not look like it does if we had done our apologetics and theological homework."

"With Gentleness and Respect" by Ravi Zacharias. p. 90 in Outreach Magazine November/December 2013.
