The Junior League of Cleveland

(free parking, shopping)

1:00-5:00 p.m. – The weather is cooling and there is a crispness in the air. It's that time of year again to prepare for the joy and merriment of the season. To start off the season in a festive way, attend the Junior League of Cleveland's Children's Holiday Shop and Treasures in the Attic at Holiday CircleFest!

If you are looking for a way to include children into the holiday spirit, the JLC's Children's Holiday Shop is the perfect solution. Children can bring a hat, pair of gloves, or scarf to donate to a foster care child in need and get the opportunity to decorate a holiday cookie to take home.

While the children are making cookies and wrapping their gifts to a child in need, parents can enjoy light refreshments at a reasonable price and shop at our Treasures in the Attic sale to find that perfect holiday gift. Treasures in the Attic has holiday items, silver, crystal, linens, furs, jewelry (real and costume), vintage clothing, and household accessories.

All proceeds benefit the Junior League of Cleveland mission and programs that support our current signature initiative, youth aging out of foster care.

Noon-5:00 p.m. – Join WRHS for Celebrations: Holiday Traditions in Cleveland. Re-live holiday nostalgia of downtown Cleveland by visiting a winter wonderland scene featuring the Higbee's mechanical window display characters of the 1950s and 1960s. Climb aboard and ride the recently-restored Euclid Beach Park Grand Carousel. Ride tokens can be purchased for $3.00. Discover the traditions of Hanukkah and make a craft for the "festival of light" with our partner, the Maltz Museum of Jewish Heritage. Want more? Experience our newest exhibits of local history. Explore In Grand Style and witness the luxury of Cleveland's Gilded Age in the Chisholm Halle Costume Wing. Don't miss out on 1964: When Browns Town was Title Town, the Crawford Auto-Aviation Collection and much, much more! Visitors can also warm up with a cup of cocoa and a snack, and take advantage of the Museum Store's unique selection of holiday gifts.
