

Welcome!

St. John's is delighted to welcome you to Fall Gathering in historic Helena! You will experience the soaring spiritual beauty of our building as you experience Southern hospitality, Helena style. You will also not want to miss the early arrival tour Friday afternoon. When I read Phyllis Raney's Saturday session description, all I could think of was, "The greatest of these is love." I'm looking forward to it.

Susan Carter, President
Arkansas ECW

Essential Steps to Improve Your Relationship with God, Your Family and Your Friends

Psychotherapist Phyllis Raney will be our Fall Gathering featured speaker. She will share with us that no matter what happens in this life, there is always something left to love. We will talk about behaviors that are essential to loving and to being lovable. Her presentation will include the following:

1. What makes relationships work
2. The importance of communication
3. Behaviors that are predictors of broken relationships
4. The importance of kindness
5. Our relationship with God

Did you know Helena is the site of the longest running daily radio program in the U.S., King Biscuit Time.

Plan on an early arrival and spend the afternoon with Delta Heritage Tours visiting many sites in Helena. You will experience a gospel choir at one of Helena's historic churches, tour a German POW camp and visit Battle of Helena sites. The Delta Cultural Center will also be on the agenda. Detailed information to follow!

A lifelong Episcopalian, Phyllis is a well-known psychotherapist who is a popular speaker. Her approach to all topics is light hearted and filled with information and fun.

FRIDAY COCKTAIL BUFFET

A wonderful evening has been planned at the Pillow Thompson House. Located at 718 Perry Street in Helena this home has been beautifully restored to offer visitors a look at one of the finest examples of Queen Anne architecture in the South. It is one of several homes in Helena designed by architect George Barber. The house was restored through a joint effort of the community and Phillips Community College of the University of Arkansas. Original owners were Episcopalians and members of St. John's, Jenny and Jerome Pillow.
