

Maryland Planning Commissioners Association

2012 Annual Conference, November 8 – 9

The WESTIN Washington National Harbor

Livable communities

are attractive places that integrate residential and commercial land uses with recreational areas, services and jobs.

Please consider Sponsorship of the MPCA 2012 Annual Conference and help the Maryland Planning Commissioners Association provide high quality training to its members as well as an opportunity for attendees to network and learn about the roles businesses, organizations and citizen planners play in making communities livable.
