'DUNCAN' MACKINNON CROCKFORD

W. J. Phillips

After all, Nancy lived in multicultural Canada. Nancy had been in the Calgary area since 1962. After studying painting at the University of Manitoba, she took a position in the general office of the City of Winnipeg. She was a member of the Canadian Artists Society of Craft and Paper Printing, and she was a member of the National Association of Artists, attending a variety of workshops and exhibiting paintings in her own home and in galleries. She was interested in what flowers and nature in general, what is often created in nature.

She made inquiries with the Group, the Calgary Station (1961), and the Federation of Canadian Artists (Calgary). She has been a participant in the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede's Winter Art Auction.

Nancy is represented by Heritage Gallery, Calgary.
