

CAROL

March 19, 2014

Dear OTR Resident/Business,

Salt Film Productions will be filming scenes in your neighborhood Monday, March 24th for the movie "Carol", starring Cate Blanchett and Rooney Mara. The movie takes place in 1952 New York City and suburban New Jersey. Our script is based on a novel entitled The Price of Salt written in the '50s by Patricia Highsmith, who also wrote Strangers on a Train and The Talented Mr. Ripley.

We plan to begin preparations at 12th and Walnut on Friday, March 21st with small crews, and then filming begins Monday the 24th for 1/2 day. Our workday will be approx 6 hours beginning around 9am and finishing around 3pm. (There will also be some set up time prior to 9am when we bring in our equipment trucks and period cars.)

Traffic will be assisted by Cincinnati Police officers to ensure you can come and go to your homes or businesses with minimal delay. For a couple of the wider shots, however, we will have to do a longer lock-up, but hope to keep that as short as possible.

You may have noticed that the City was premature in removing non-period signage from the Walnut St. We will have temporary signage up shortly to protect business parking.

We will be recording dialogue for all scenes, so please let us know if you have any noisy work planned the morning of the 24th, such as roofing or remodeling, and we will venture to work out the scheduling.

We will do our best to keep delays to a minimum as you come and go. If you have any questions or concerns, feel free to contact one of us by phone or email.

Thank you for your hospitality and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Deirdre Costa
