

Reading is usually done as a solitary hobby, something one can do in the privacy of their own home, on a park bench, or while taking a break from the hustle and bustle of work. And some people prefer to speak openly about the books they read and love. Book clubs and reading groups have become very popular over the years. It can be fun to see what other opinions you can gather about a book that is read amongst a group.

- First Monday Book Club: Meets the first of every month at 6 p.m. (Fairmont Branch Library)
- Tea Time Mystery Book Club: Meets the third Monday of every month at 6 p.m. (Fairmont Branch Library)
- Kids' Book Club: Meets the first Wednesday of every month at 3:30 p.m. (Central Library)

Meetings usually last an hour, and the invitation is open to anyone who wishes to join. For more information, please contact the Central Library's Children's Department at 713.477.0276 x4132 or the Fairmont Branch library at 281.998.1095.