

Cordially invites you to our Chamber Luncheon
TOPIC:

BC Lottery Corporation
Benefiting your community

Jim Lightbody,
Vice-President of Casino & Community Gaming

Jim Lightbody is responsible for the strategic direction and development of casino and community gaming, a $1.6 billion line of business. He provides leadership and direction in facilities, marketing and product development and has operational responsibility for the provision of products, services and support for players and business partners.

Discussion on the future of gaming in BC – as well as an update on the Terrace market. Hear more about how the industry and the proceeds from gambling benefit the community and the entire province. You will also learn about BCLC's commitment to responsible gambling through upcoming community-based initiatives designed to engage with all regions of B.C.
