

Mama Tendo Shooting Star leadership programme. Living the seven Habits.

This character building programme for young people is based on a star book by Steven Covey, The 7 habits of highly effective people.

It is also based on his son's books 7 habits of highly effective kids, and 7 habits of highly effective teenagers. They carry the same principles though presented differently.

When I read the 7 habits of Highly effective People, two years ago it made a formidable influence on my life. A complete paradigm shift.

I know anyone who has read this book will say the same. No one studies and internalizes the 7 habits of highly effective people principles stays the same. Its life transforming truths can be applied anywhere in this world.

These concepts if learnt and applied by children and teenagers at this age can totally transform their behavior, their academic and social performance, their company, and can lead them to live successful and rewarding lives by teaching them to make the right choices and setting worthy goals.

From these great books and works of other experts I have put together a training programme for children 8-15 years. I would therefore encourage you to send your child for this programme. During this training we will be learning about the First habit. Being proactive.

1. The First Habit: To be Proactive

The proactive child

- I am a responsible person
- I take initiative
- I choose my actions
- I do not blame others for what I have done
- I do the right thing without being asked
- I am not controlled by circumstances
- The weather does not affect me, I carry my own weather.

Young people will learn how to be proactive instead of reactive. They will learn how to make the right decisions when thrown in confusing circumstances.
