

The Kirkwood Franciscan Sisters invite you to a special evening with local Fulbright Scholar Randall Hyman who has been documenting climate change in the Arctic.

“Shattered Arctic”

You are invited to attend either evening:
March 11 or March 12, 2014
7:00 pm

Randall Hyman will be sharing this lecture/photo/video presentation regarding what he is seeing while spending time in the Arctic. In late January, Randall returned from Norway where he attended a climate change conference. As photojournalist and writer, Hyman has traveled the world covering culture, history and environmental issues for more than three decades.

Listen to Randall being interviewed by Jean Ponzi, February 24, 2014 at 7pm on KDHX-FM 88.1

Either evening is free and open to the public.
Due to popularity you must RSVP to attend.

This event replaces the scheduled movie “Heart of Sky, Heart of Earth”.
