I would like to offer you the opportunity to promote your brand with a large and dynamic organization with international market reach.

Who We Are:

Women Speakers Association (WSA) is THE go-to place for innovative leaders, change-agents and women with a message to connect, collaborate and grow their visibility worldwide in order to fulfill their mission. As the first-ever global community for women speakers, WSA provides a platform for women to get seen, booked and paid AND to be part of a growing network reaching women in 120 countries on 6 continents.

What We Do:

Women Speakers Association (WSA) is a (virtual) global community that serves women in every industry who are committed to using their voice to powerfully inspire and educate others. We specialize in supporting both established and aspiring women leaders to step outside their comfort zone, think outside the box and create optimal ways to grow a thriving, prosperous business.
