Richard Greenberg, M.D.
Gardena, Hawthorne, Hawthorne, Los Angeles, Santa Monica

Richard Greenberg has been practicing psychiatry in Southern California for nearly 50 years and he is proud of that clinical experience. A native of Minnesota, Dr. Greenberg earned his MD in 1956 from the University of Minnesota, St. Paul/Minneapolis. Departing Minnesota for Southern California, Greenberg completed his internship in 1957 at San Bernardino County Hospital. He was a resident in Psychiatry at Veterans Administration Hospital in Los Angeles and completed an additional year of residency at the UCLA Neuropsychiatric Institute.

Dr. Greenberg has been in private practice in Southern California since 1962. He is a Qualified Medical Examiner, and he participates with several professional organizations, including South Bay Psychiatric Society, California Medical Association, and the Los Angeles County Medical Association.

In addition to his commitment to the private medical community, Dr. Greenberg served as a Captain in the United States Air Force Medical Corps, where he practiced at Parks AFB Hospital in California. Outside of his medical career, Dr. Greenberg has always made time for his other passion – singing. In his free time, you can find him harmonizing with a Barbershop chorus.
