

“Preaching to Rupture the Routine”

Preparing for Lent: Exegetical Insight and Preaching Ideas for 2013 (Year C)

A Live 90-minute Outlook Webinar featuring Amanda Benckhuysen and Robert Hoch
Tuesday Feb. 5 — 2 p.m. eastern time (11 a.m. pacific time)

Join Drs. Amanda Benckhuysen, Assistant Professor of Old Testament, and Robert Hoch, Associate Professor of Homiletics and Worship, as they explore the season of Lent (Year C). This webinar will ...

- » Map out broad themes of the assigned texts in their liturgical setting;
- » Introduce classical expressions of spiritual wisdom for the Lenten season;
- » Share insights into the contemporary significance of these ancient witnesses;
- » Foreground Old Testament texts as resources for the Lenten journey.

Additionally, the webinar will focus on two Sundays from the Lenten season in order to help preachers get inside the larger themes and tensions of these texts

To register for the Webinar go to www.bit.ly/preachinglent — $29.95 (1-6 viewers).

For group prices or other questions, contact Jana Blazek at jblazek@pres-outlook.org or 800/446-6008 Ext. 758.

If this doesn't fit your schedule, a recorded version will be available a few days after the event for your viewing. All registrants will have access to the archived online version. Or purchase a DVD of the webinar: $39.95
