DEC 13 CHRISTMAS MADRIGAL DINNER
BY THE DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC AT FAU
Saturday, 6PM, Harris Hall

The department of music in Florida Atlantic University's Dorothy F. Schmidt College of Arts and Letters presents a new holiday tradition as they launch their first annual Madrigal Dinner at St. Gregory's Episcopal Church in Boca Raton on Saturday, December 13, at 6 p.m, Harris Hall. The event reflects a Renaissance evening full of pageantry and entertainment, including a court jester, wandering minstrels and other characters, as well as delicious succulent food and extraordinary music.

Call 561-297-2337 for ticket information or visit fauf.fau.edu/madrigal.

JAN 18 THERESA THOMASON
RENOWNED GOSPEL SINGER
Sunday, 3 PM, Church Sanctuary

This concert is being presented as part of the Martin Luther King, Jr. weekend and national holiday celebrating his life and work.

Thomason reached the airwaves with Fresh Enuff, a popular club single and a winning performance at the Apollo Theater in New York City. She toured Europe for over 10 years, performing in over 150 European cities. In addition to having performed at the United Nations for the Dalai Lama and others, she remains a featured artist with the Grammy winning Paul Winter Consort at the annual Winter Solstice, and the Missa Gala Earth Mass celebrations in New York City.

Many of these performances have been televised on PBS and NBC. You will not want to miss this unique opportunity to hear one of the world's foremost gospel artists!
