

The Showcase - Cheltenham Racecourse, October 17 & 18, 2014

Cheltenham's October meeting, the first of the new season at the Home Of Jump Racing, was renamed The Showcase in 2007 and moved to its present Friday/Saturday slot. The popular two-day meeting, which offers prize money of £288,000, is a natural starting point for horses returning from their summer breaks and is often used in preparation for The Open (Friday, November 14 - Sunday, November 16 inclusive) at the course.

The Saturday card is headlined by two £50,000 handicap chases. First up is the two and a half-mile Marie Curie Cancer Care Handicap Chase (2.35pm), which serves as a trial for the Grade Three Paddy Power Gold Cup, the £160,000 feature race at The Open.

Johns Spirit completed the double impressively for trainer Jonjo O'Neill and jockey Richie McLernon last year. Shooting Light (2001 - trained by Martin Pipe) and The Outback Way (1999 - trained by Venetia Williams) are the two other winners of both handicap chases.

The second £50,000 contest is the Showcase Trophy Handicap Chase (3.45pm), run over three miles and a furlong, a new distance after the start for handicap chases has been moved to before the second last fence rather than the last fence. Cheltenham specialist Balthazar King has won the last three renewals of this race for trainer Philip Hobbs, jockey Richard Johnson and owners The Brushmakers. Successful seven times in all at Cheltenham, Balthazar King most recently landed the Glenfarclas Cross Country Handicap Chase at The Festival in March, 2014, a race he also won in 2012. His other Cheltenham victories have come in the Glenfarclas Cross County Chase at The Open in November, 2013 and a long-distance novices' chase in April, 2011.

Midnight Chase was the winner of the Showcase Trophy Handicap Chase in 2010. The Neil Mulholland-trained gelding proved to be a real star at Cheltenham throughout the 2010/11 season, also capturing valuable handicaps at The Open and The International in December. He finished that campaign with a fine fifth in the Betfred Cheltenham Gold Cup and recorded a fifth victory at Cheltenham in the 2012 Grade Two Argento Chase.

The £30,000 Masterson Holdings Hurdle (3.10pm), inaugurated in 2009 and also run on the Saturday, is a conditions race providing four-year-olds with an opportunity to compete against their own age group before being pitched into all-age company later in the campaign. The first winner, Starluck, progressed to finish fifth in the Grade One Stan James Champion Hurdle at The Festival in 2010.

The meeting's concluding race is The Jockey Club Venues Standard Open National Hunt Flat Race (5.30pm). In 2006, this extended two-mile bumper went to Imperial Commander, who became a champion when landing the 2010 Betfred Cheltenham Gold Cup at The Festival.

Day One of The Showcase commences with the £17,000 Neptune Investment Management Novices' Hurdle (2.10pm) over two miles and five furlongs, which is the first contest on the Road to Cheltenham that culminates with the Grade One Neptune Investment Management Novices' Hurdle over the same course and distance at The Festival in March. The New One took both races in 2012/13 season for trainer Nigel Twiston-Davies and his jockey son Sam.

The Harrison James & Hardie Maiden Hurdle (4.25pm Friday) was won last year in good style by the Paul Nicholls-trained Lac Fontana who made all and developed into a smart performer. After disappointing in the Sky Bet Supreme Trial Novices' Hurdle at The Open, he won the Steel Plate And Sections Handicap Hurdle on Festival Trials Day in January, got up to triumph in the Grade Three Vincent O'Brien County Handicap Hurdle at The Festival and then took the Grade One Pertemps Network Mersey Novices' Hurdle at Aintree in April.

The Cheltenham Monopoly Amateur Riders' Handicap Chase (5pm, Friday), which has been won for the last two years by the Nigel Twiston-Davies-trained Hunters Lodge, is the first long-distance handicap chase to have a new start - before the second last - and the race will be run over three miles and a furlong rather than 3m 110 yards as previously.

Racegoers attending the two days will notice that Cheltenham has changed significantly last racing at the end of April.

The first stages of the £45-million development will be completed in time for The Showcase, including a new bar at the top of the paddock, the refurbished See You Then Bar. This will be officially opened on Friday, October 17, by See You Then's trainer Nicky Henderson and jockey Steve Smith Eccles.

See You Then won the Champion Hurdle for three successive years, 1985-1987.

In addition, the horse walk has been repositioned to allow space for the new grandstand. The Weighing Room has been extended and refurbished, and now has 200 square metres of solar panels on the roof.

Finally, the new plaza area, at the bottom of the paddock, will be opened. This is the new home of the Best Mate statue.

There will be tours around the racecourse so that people can see the changes that have been completed and understand those to come, as the remaining building works progress over the next 18 months.

All other facilities on site, such as The Centaur, private boxes, Hall of Fame, North Entrance, the Arkle Bar and Mandarin Restaurant will be in use as normal.

About Cheltenham Racecourse

Cheltenham Racecourse is situated in Prestbury on the outskirts of the historic spa town of Cheltenham. The Home of Jump Racing, Cheltenham Racecourse is the venue for the world's pre-eminent Jump Racing meeting, The Festival, which takes place in March over four days every year. ## Racegoers go behind the scenes

As well as all the action on the track, racegoers will also be able to get behind the scenes of "The Sport of Kings". There will be guided tours of the Parade Ring and Weighing Room before racing, as well as various activities and displays about the sport.

In addition, for the first time, Cheltenham will be celebrating all that is great about the region it is situated in, the Cotswolds. This will take place in the Gloucestershire Echo Cotswold Celebration Zone. Visitors will be able to enjoy sampling delicious food and drink, grown and manufactured locally, as well as a display showcasing a local tradition, dry stone walling and the fastest omelette challenge.
