Bonaire is the Eastern-most Caribbean island in the “ABC” island chain, made up of Aruba, Bonaire and Curacao. Located in the Netherlands Antilles (often called the Dutch Caribbean), the island is a mere 40 miles north of Venezuela. Bonaire covers 112 square miles, is 24 miles long and 3 to 7 miles across. Long known as one of the Caribbean’s most outstanding dive destinations, Bonaire has something for everyone. Beautiful shallow coral gardens teeming with brightly colored fish life. Dramatic walls of hard and soft corals that will be spawning over our time in Bonaire, starting the third day after the full moon. You will be able to get a chance to experience this unique natural event. In addition, there is a large variety of unusual marine life such as the timid sea horse and the almost impossible to see frog fish. The shore diving in Bonaire is plentiful and easily accessible, allowing the most avid divers the opportunity to do as much diving as they want. When not diving, enjoy several top side attractions such as; hundreds of pink flamingos roaming wild, dramatic desert landscapes, picturesque villages, charming people and even a pink beach. For the less active...you can hang out by the hotel’s fresh water pool and sip a drink with an umbrella. Whatever your interests - Bonaire will not disappoint you!
