LOCAL NEWS

◆ CHARGES FROM FATAL WRECK

A Cartersville man turned himself into the Bartow County Jail on charges related to an April 16, 2013, wreck that killed Alfred Dobbins, 45, Kingston. The Georgia State Patrol said Dobbins was traveling south on Highway 293 on his motorcycle when a north-bound Toyota pickup truck made a left turn into his path. The motorcycle hit the passenger side of the pickup truck. The driver of the pickup truck Cang Phuc Ly, 35, Stiles Fairway, Cartersville, is charged with homicide by vehicle and failure to yield the right of way.

◆ MAN STABBED DURING FIGHT

A 52 year old man received a severe cut to his stomach during a domestic dispute Saturday morning. Bartow County Sheriff Clark Millsap said deputies responded to 4522 Scenic Mountain Road, Acworth, around 8:00 a.m. and found Charles Smith, 52, stabbed. The investigation revealed Smith and Jody Crumpton, Jr., 22, had been involved in a physical fight when Crumpton stabbed Smith outside the residence. Crumpton had been staying at the house prior to the fight. Smith was transported to Grady Hospital in Atlanta for treatment. Crumpton is in the Bartow County Jail charged with aggravated assault under the family violence act.
