

NBC 7 San Diego Inspirational Teacher of the Month

In partnership with the County Office of Education
Sponsored by Ashford University

Nominate an inspirational K-12 teacher from your school who is an outstanding individual on his or her school campus and within their community. Each month, NBC Education Reporter Rory Devine will honor a selected teacher during a surprise recognition in their classroom. Devine will interview the selected teacher on-air as part of the recognition.

Nominee Name

School, District

Subject/Grade Level

Nominator: Name, Phone, Email

Please limit answers to 150 words or less per question.

Describe why you are nominating this teacher for the Inspirational Teacher of the Month Award?

How has this nominee inspired their students in their academic and community outreach endeavors?

How has this nominee inspired their colleagues at school and how has this impacted the student body?

How has this nominee inspired parents and members of the community to support students?

Return completed nomination form to the San Diego County
Office of Education at communications@sdcoe.net.