2014–2015

Celebrating BAAPT's 30th Anniversary

We are a voluntary, non-profit organization dedicated to the constructive use of differences. Our interests include the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI®), Keirsey's work on Temperament, and a variety of other typology applications.

■ BAAPT PROGRAMS – 2014-2015

Programs are from 9:30 AM to 12:30 PM at the Millbrae Public Library, Chetcuti Room.
Refreshments and guest registration begin at 9:00 AM.
Guest Fee is $35. First time guests FREE.

September 13 • Honoring the Past, Experiencing the Present, Envisioning the Future: observing BAAPT's 30th Anniversary • ALL LEVELS

A full day session. BAAPT members reflect on our chapter's past.
Sterling Bates (ENTP) and Gene Bellotti (INFJ), show us how Type is evolving, and prepare us for changes ahead. And all participants experience the present by visiting with others over a delicious luncheon.

October 11 • Type and Dreams • ALL LEVELS

Meredith Sabini (INTJ) — This Jungian psychologist will offer illustrative examples of how typology appears in our dreams.

November 8: Spirituality ★ Typology ★ Carl Jung ★ Monty Python INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

Rachel Fitzgerald (INFP) and Mark Shumway (INFJ) — Explore the many layers of these topics, and where they overlap, with two experienced guides.

December 13 • Accelerating Change: Temperament as a Tool ALL LEVELS

Sharon Richmond (ENTP) — Examine how to leverage the temperament model to better engage all employees in achieving an organization's much-needed changes.

January 10 • Joseph Henderson's Civilizing Values INTERMEDIATE LEVEL

John Beebe (ENTP) — Explore which of Henderson's five civilizing orientations toward what is offered already by our culture are most meaningful to us.
