Call for nominations for the 2014 PIIAC Awards

Our members rock! And we need your help in recognizing them!! Each year the PIIAC asks its members for nominations recognizing outstanding service to the association or to the insurance industry. We recognize individuals in several different categories. Please take a few minutes to review the various awards to be presented at the Annual Dinner on September 26th, at the Ritz-Carlton in Denver. To nominate a candidate, or yourself (self nominations are permitted and encouraged – if you don’t pat yourself on the back, who else will?) complete the nomination form and attach any supporting documents.

Nominations must be received at the Professional Independent Insurance Agents of Colorado office, 1660 South Albion Street, Suite 518, Denver, CO 80222, or faxed to 303-512-0575 or emailed to Dot@piiac.com no later than Friday, August 1, 2014.

Insurance Person of the Year
The Insurance Person of the Year is the highest honor awarded by PIIAC to one of its own members. This is an award to the individual association member who has contributed the most through his/her association work in local and state activities, promoting the general concept of the organization in its support of the American Agency System. This person’s contributions include responsibilities such as holding office, committee assignments and providing outstanding leadership in both association and civic affairs. The person is active in community service and displays solid values and ethics. The Insurance Person of the Year is employed by a PIIAC member agency. The current PIIAC President is not eligible for two years.

Company Manager of the Year
This award honors the management-level individual most active in support of the association’s education programs and legislative activities and the individual’s leadership of company personnel. The recipient of this award excels in leadership ability and in furthering the image of the American Agency System to the public, PIIAC, and its local affiliations through personal efforts in education, public relations and legislation. The Company Manager of the Year must be an employee of a PIIAC Associate Member.

Company Underwriter of the Year
The Company Underwriter of the Year is someone who reflects the corporate image through their understanding of the company’s products and the ability to communicate that understanding. The PIIAC Company Underwriter of the Year is a both teacher and student as well as an outspoken advocate for ongoing professional education. The underwriter must be an employee of a PIIAC Associate Member.

Company Marketing Person of the Year
The Company Marketing Person of the Year demonstrates leadership ability, product knowledge and the ability to work with producers and company personnel. This person is an advocate for professional continuing education and excellence in customer service. The Marketing Person of the Year is an employee of a PIIAC Associate Member.

Young Insurance Professional of the Year
The Young Insurance Professional of the Year demonstrates service to the insurance industry, the Association and community in a manner that brings credit to his or her profession. This person is committed to an insurance career and volunteerism and advocates careers in insurance to people everywhere. The Young Insurance Professional of the Year strives for excellence in his or her professional skills and ethics.
