

What's new!

New In Stores

SEPTEMBER 2013

Come on the day when chimney hoods started seriously over smoke caps, providing a lightning soundtrack with their angry whirr while you cooked. Huber's latest line of chimney hoods are bound to be the gorgeous centre piece of any kitchen with their sleek stainless steel and black polished lines. In addition, the inbuilt hoods boast offy features such as LED lamps and its fan speeds are easily controlled with a swipe of a finger.

Huber's chimney hoods model T30100-00, T30100-01, T30100-02, T30100-03, T30100-04, T30100-05 and T30100-06, from all Courts, Best Denki and Audio House outlets

Different rice types and dishes require different cooking times. Huber's induction heating rice cooker has seven different rice courses and four other unique cooking settings which let you choose the type of preparation you need with a touch of a button.

What's more, an inner pot coated with heated stainless steel and titanium technology allows heat movement to adjust the steam and evenly spread, so every grain comes out fluffy and perfect.

Huber's induction heating rice cooker (H-10000-01, H-10000-02 and H-10000-03), from $200, available at selected authorised retailers.

Treat yourself to a cooling mug of liquid gold with Bruce Cost's Ginger Ale. Made from whole, fresh ginger, this mellow drink is sweetened only with pure cane sugar and allows the earthy flavours from the ginger root to shine through. The tinge of heat also goes a long way with your favourite cocktails as the warmth from the spice plays off nicely against the spirits. Choose from unique flavours such as Jasmine Green Tea or refreshing concoctions such as Pomegranate and Hibiscus which features natural antioxidants infused with floral essences.

Bruce Cost's Ginger Ale, $4.90, available at Huber's Deli, Huber's Butchery and www.hubers.com.sg

Huber's new, aptly named multi-task food processor opens the door to an infinite world of culinary possibilities in your own kitchen. Capable of handling over 30 tasks that run the gamut from grinding meat, making curries or even cake dough, from roasting to whipping, it's just named some. Its mixing bowl can hold up to 3 litres. Moreover, it comes armed with a SuperCut universal blade that cuts through both soft and hard ingredients effortlessly with its serrated edge and wide blades.

Huber's Multi-Task Food Processor, $299, available at all leading electronic and departmental stores island wide.

