

WORKING WITH YOUNG ADULTS

Housing, Hope & Opportunity

Friday – January 31 – 9:30am – 3:30pm

Working with young adults can be challenging but also exciting and rewarding. This training will focus on understanding young adults and their needs with a special attention on recovery, wellness, employment and Motivational Interviewing techniques—all of which should help to engage with the wide variety of people in this critical transitional age. Other topics that will be touched on briefly are: mentoring, supports, career planning and the impact of trauma.

Presenter	Mike Golub, MSW, CUCS Institute
Date:	January 31, 2014
Time:	MORNING is for Program Directors/Social Service Directors/Housing Managers: 9:30am- Noon AFTERNOON is for Front-Line/Case Management Staff: 1:00pm – 3:30pm
Place:	OMH/New York City Field Office 330 Fifth Avenue Conference Room A, 9th floor New York, New York 10001

Please register by Monday, January 27 , 2013
 Send an email to: Elizabeth.Sieger@omh.ny.gov