

Waterford Writers Group

Wednesday, September 3, 6:00pm

Meet in the History Room. New members always welcome. Please pre-register.

The DOA that made it

Tuesday, September 9, 6:00pm

Is there life after death? Just ask Dave Miles the "DOA Who Made It!" Dave was sitting at a large, busy intersection, at a red light, when suddenly a 54 year old who was "dead drunk", rear-ended him at almost 50 mph. At the hospital they kept telling his young wife that he would NOT be alive much longer. He laid in a coma for 2 weeks. When he finally "came too" he had a lot to say about "the other side". This program is free.

Registration required.

Lap-Sit Storytimes for children under 3

Each 20-minute session has a different theme and fun things for toddlers to do such as sign language, songs, finger plays, movement activities and stories. Lap-Sit is held on Wednesdays and Thursdays on the following days. The same program is offered both days each week.

September 10 or 11 September 17 or 18

The group meets at 9:30 a.m. and no registration is required.

Preschool Storytimes for ages 3, 4, 5

Preschool Storytimes are held on Wednesdays and Thursdays on the following dates—

September 10 or 11 September 17 or 18

Three, four and five year-olds are welcome on Wednesday or Thursday at 10:30 a.m. The sessions run for 30 minutes and include sign language, stories, songs, finger plays, a craft and movement activities. Sign up in the library or by phone. The same program is offered both days each week.

Registration is required!

Houdini, His Life & His Legend

Thursday, September 11, 6:30pm

Join William Pack as he exposes the amazing truth behind the myth of the legendary escape artist, magician, daredevil, and ghost hunter. Over 80 years after his death, his story still sets fire to the imaginations of young and old. This program is free. Registration required.

Music Performance

Saturday, September 13, 1:00pm

Muzika Piano Trio Featuring Darlene Rivest on Violin, Michele Venturella on Cello & Anna Kojovic on Piano.

Planting Spring Flowering Bulbs

Monday, September 15, 6:00pm

Add bursts of color to your spring landscape by planting spring-flowering bulbs this fall! Learn how as we plant bulbs throughout the library's landscape in this hands-on workshop with Jeanne Christensen from Horticultural Handiwork, Inc. Bring gloves and a trowel or shovel. This program is free. Registration required.

Digital Photography Club

Wednesday, September 17, 6:30pm

Under the direction of Robin Duran from 360 Image Media. Meet in the History Room. New members always welcome. Please pre-register.

Jim Rice author of Giant Cheeseheads

Thursday, September 18, 6:30pm

Come and meet Jim Rice the author of Giant Cheeseheads: The Giant-Packer Rivalry and the former Giants who helped the Packers become Champions. Rice wrote Giant Cheeseheads in 2010. This program is free.

Registration required.