

Building Blocks

Mondays, October 6-November 3, 9:30 a.m.

Linda Breuer hosts Building Blocks Storytimes for preschool families. Books and musical activities will engage parents and children ages 0 – 5. No pre-registration is required.

Social Security: Your Questions Answered

Monday, October 13th, 6:00 p.m.

This educational program is for people who are nearing retirement, ages 55 and up, who have questions about social security. Join Ron Knafllic from Edward Jones during this 30-45 minute program. Ron will help answer these questions: How does Social Security fit into my retirement income plan? When should I start taking benefits? What about taxes? This program is free.

Lap-Sit Storytimes for children under 3

Each 20-minute session has a different theme and fun things for toddlers to do such as sign language, songs, finger plays, movement activities and stories. Lap-Sit is held on Wednesdays and Thursdays on the following days. The same program is offered both days each week.

October 8 or 9 October 15 or 16

The group meets at 9:30 a.m. and no registration is required.

Preschool Storytimes for ages 3, 4, 5

Preschool Storytimes are held on Wednesdays and Thursdays on the following dates—

October 8 or 9 October 15 or 16

Three, four and five year-olds are welcome on Wednesday or Thursday at 10:30 a.m. The sessions run for 30 minutes and include sign language, stories, songs, finger plays, a craft and movement activities. Sign up in the library or by phone. The same program is offered both days each week.

Registration is required!

The Imagination Library Community Conversation

Wednesday, October 15, 10:30 a.m.

United Way is hosting a “Community Conversation” to reach out to Waterford and receive feedback about the Imagination Library program. Check out their website at <http://imaginationlibrary.com/> and join us to share your thoughts, ideas and suggestions for strengthening United Way’s presence in our community. To participate contact Marie Hargrove at 262-456-6470.

Digital Photography Club

3rd Wednesday of each month at 6:30 p.m.

October 15th, November 19th and December 17th

Under the direction of Robin Duran from 360 Image Media. Meets in the History Room.

New members always welcome.

“The True Story of the Wooden Horse” by Robert Laplander*

Thursday, October 16th, 5:30 p.m.

You’re invited to a special event marking the US release of the book “The True Story of the Wooden Horse” by local author/historian Robert J. Laplander. Come on down, meet the author, hear all about the most ingenious POW escape of WWII and see a special screening of the 1950 movie based on the event. There will be a special display of POW paraphernalia and POW re-enactors to guide you, as well as reproduction items used in the escape, including a full size replica of the wooden vaulting horse featured in it. This program is free.