

Military Order of the World Wars Youth Leadership Program

Those Chapters looking to support their local youth may want to consider looking into “The Military Order of the World Wars” (MOWW) Youth Leadership Program. The MOWW is a national patriotic organization of American Military Officers, Warrant Officers, Flight Officers and their descendants of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard, to promote the cultivation of Military, Naval and Air science and the adoption of a consistent and suitable policy of National Security for the United States of America.

The Youth leadership Conferences are educational conferences giving High School rising 9th and 10th grade students the chance to develop leadership skills and patriotism. Held across the country these short one or five day conferences build leadership skills and are a another means of supporting our youth. Sponsorships are $200 per student. For more information go to www.mowww.org or call MOWW at 1-877-320-3774.
