

Graduation Awards

The “We Are One-Hocking” Graduation Award

Presented to one graduating American & one graduating International student who through their actions and involvement has made a significant impact on the cross-cultural understanding and campus unity at Hocking College.

Richard Elston Award

In memory of Richard Elston, a former Hocking College Student Senate president, this award recognizes a graduating student whose outstanding leadership has positively impacted the Hocking College community.

Student Life Award

Presented to any graduating student who has exemplified dedication and commitment to improving the quality of student life for all members of the Hocking College campus community.

Student Employment Award

Presented to a student who has gone above and beyond the call of duty in a position of student employment, to show extraordinary commitment to the job and provide outstanding service.