The Morton Arboretum

Protecting Your Budget and Trees

2 for 1 workshop
-
Thursday, January 23, 2014

South Suburban College
www.ssc.edu

Thursday, January 23rd
South Suburban College
Kindig Performing Arts Center
15800 State St.
South Holland, IL 60473
(708) 596-2000

9:00 AM to 3:00 PM

Fee: $20.00/person.
Scholarships are available, email Beth for details.

Lunch and materials included in the cost of the workshop, CEU's may be available.

This two part workshop is designed for municipal professionals responsible for tree care and management. Participants will learn:

Topic I: The impact of emerald ash borer, plus other invasives, and how to mitigate their financial strain.

Topic II: Ordinances and management plans are critical to helping protect your trees. Receive the tools to create, update or use current management plans.

To register, call or email Beth Corrigan.
Ph: 630-725-2119 Em: BCorrigan@mortonarb.org

Sponsored by: The Illinois Department of Natural Resources, US Forest Service, and The Morton Arboretum