WHAT IS THE 2014 NSHMBA CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIP?

The NSHMBA Conference Scholarship is an opportunity for Hispanics in the United States who are interested in looking for professional business opportunities in corporate America. This scholarship connects applicants to our network of corporate and other business partners through an experience that provides professional development, job-seeking skills, and face-to-face interaction with recruiters from top corporations.

As part of the scholarship program, awardees will receive travel and accommodations to and from Philadelphia, personalized coaching in preparation for time with recruiters and corporate representatives from hiring and exhibiting companies, as well as access to professional development trainings and networking events throughout the three days of travel.

This year's conference is taking place from September 24-27, 2014 in Philadelphia, PA.
