

Preparing to Preach Lent at Sea

The Rev. Dr. Craig A. Satterlee, former professor of homiletics at Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago, current bishop of the North/West Lower Michigan Synod will walk us through the appointed lectionary lessons for Lent, “You will leave the ship prepared to preach every Sunday for the season,” is his promise.

We will sail on the Carnival Dream, departing from (and returning to) New Orleans, LA on January 25, 2015. (Yes, that says 2015!)

Our itinerary:

Sunday—New Orleans, LA

Monday—Fun Day at Sea

Tuesday—Key West, FL

Wednesday—Freeport, the Bahamas

Thursday—Nassau, the Bahamas

Friday—Fun Day at Sea

Saturday—Fun Day at Sea

Sunday—New Orleans, LA

Inside cabins: $713.99 per person

Balcony cabins: $973.99 per person

The cruise line did not allow our travel agent to hold oceanview cabins, but they are available; you will need to contact her for pricing.

All prices assume double occupancy; cruisers who sail alone pay full price for two in the cabin. If you are interested in sailing with three in a cabin, the travel agent can get the fare for that as needed.

You may contact the travel agent (Lois Goetzke) at: 262-363-9630 or lois@cruiseandvacationcenter.com if you're interested in information about the cruise and/or cruise line, or to book—$250 per person secures your spot.

Peace Lutheran Church in Slidell, LA has a retreat center nearby; Craig suggested that anyone who is interested in spending time in New Orleans might plan on either pre- or post-cruise time there. The phone number for the church is: (985) 641-6400
