

Leadership for Change in Church and Society—Spring Course

How would you learn from some of the best professors across the Consortium on issues of Ministry today?

Take this first of a kind Course taught by Leadership Experts from four different schools and the Consortium.

MF -4907: "Leadership in Ministry: Congregation and Public Life."

Thursdays 6:00-9:00 pm. Location: the John Leland Center in Arlington, VA (1306 N. Highland St.-- right off Clarendon stop on Orange Line Metro). 3 Credits.

Rationale: Leadership Studies is an exploding field affecting politics, business, social service, and the military--and these professors bring it to the study and teaching of Ministry and the revitalization of the Church.

Topics: Spirituality of Leadership, Entrepreneurship & Decision Making, Vision and Planning, Leadership in Conflict, Asset Mapping, Narrative Leadership, and more!

Crossroads of Faith, Learning and Dialogue

Faculty Line Up:

Dr. John Kinney
STVU

Dr. Shirin
Leland

Dr. Mercer
VTS

Dr. Weems
Lewis Center

Dr. Martin
Wesley

Dr. Gortner
VTS

Dr. John Kinney

Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology, VUU

Dr. Andrey Shirin (coordinator)

John Leland Center for Theological Studies

Dr. Joyce Mercer

Virginia Theological Seminary

Dr. Lovett Weems

Lewis Center for Church Leadership, Wesley

Dr. Robert Martin

Wesley Theological Seminary

Dr. David Gortner

Virginia Theological Seminary

Dr. Larry Golemon, Washington Theological Consortium

Never again will you hear from so many experts in a single field about Transformative Leadership in Ministry, the Church and Society!!

For more info: Leadership in Ministry Course Spring 2015