

June 9, 2014

CALL TO ORDER: The Williamson County Republican Women held a monthly meeting at the Williamson Conference Center in Round Rock on Monday, June 9, 2014. President Marci Revelle called the meeting to order at 11:30 am.

OPENING CEREMONIES: Judge Bill Gravell gave the invocation and led the Pledge of Allegiance to the U.S. and Texas flags. Everyone was then asked to proceed to the luncheon buffet.

RECONVENE FOR PROGRAM: The minutes from last month's meeting were approved as they were distributed in the newsletter. President Marci Revelle presented the Treasurer's Report.

PROGRAM: Elexis Grimes introduced the guest speaker, James Bersen, who spoke on The History of the Republican Party. A book will be signed by Mr. Bersen and presented to the Round Rock Public Library in his honor.

COMMITTEE UPDATES:

Debbie Simmons, VP-Membership, announced that the opportunity to chair the Literary and the Fundraising committees is available. She also announced that on Tuesday, June 17, there would be a Chat at the Hill Country Market on Gattis School road. The discussion topic will be "Progressivism In our Schools".

RECOGNITION OF ELECTED OFFICIALS: Elected officials or their representatives were recognized by Marci Revelle.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Marci Revelle reminded everyone to record their campaign activities hours. She also reminded everyone that the Board meeting is held the third Monday of each month at 10:00 at La Madeline's in the Arboretum and that everyone is invited to attend. The July meeting is our Military Appreciation meeting and everyone is encouraged to bring active or retired military to the luncheon. Our guest's lunches will be free. So if you would like to help with that cost, please mail a donation to our treasurer. Donna Parker commented that the Tribute to Women's luncheon at the state convention was great and thanked Shannon Tracy and Elexis Grimes for their part in making it happen.

CLOSING: There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 1:00 by Marci Revelle.
