

2014 TEXAS COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT POLICY SUMMIT

AUSTIN, TEXAS – OCTOBER 2, 2014

TEXAS STATE CAPITOL

A COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM HOSTED BY THE TEXAS ASSOCIATION OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATIONS

The TEXAS ASSOCIATION OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT CORPORATIONS (TACDC) is pleased to invite you to attend in the 2014 Texas Community Economic Development Policy Summit on October 2, 2014 in the Legislative Conference Center. For over a decade TACDC has organized this respected forum for legislators, lenders, policy makers, and industry leaders to promote an earnest and wide-ranging discussion of public policy and its impact on community development activities like affordable housing, job creation, and quality of life. The ultimate goal of each Summit is to thoroughly review current issues in order to help identify public policies that will best address those issues.

This year's event focuses on four important subjects:

- ★ Policies Impacting Multifamily Housing Across Texas
- ★ Increasing Economic Opportunities for Lower Income Texans
- ★ Payday Lending Reform in the 84th Texas Legislature
- ★ Keynote: Beyond the Beltway: Congressional Impacts on Community Development
Speaker - Mary Childs, Director of Government Relations at National Development Council

Reserve your place today! Space is limited! Please complete the following registration form, sign, and return it to TACDC to reserve your space at the event. Each participant will receive a collection of timely research materials that directly impact policy discussion and future debates. Participants are encouraged to bring their laptops to view research documents and take notes.

The Policy Summit will take place from 9:00 am to 2:30 pm (check-in will start at 8:00 am) on October 2, 2014 at the Legislative Conference Center in the Capitol Extension of the Texas State Capitol. Breakfast, lunch, and refreshments will be served, compliments of the event sponsors.
