

Michelle Woods, Director of Career Services, is hosting a number of workshops this fall term on various topics, including job searching and licensing. The dates and topics are as follows:

- "Understanding Licensure," Monday, October 20
- "Understanding Licensure (Repeat Session)," Friday, November 7

Additionally, Career Services is also hosting a number of alumni for our Fall Alumni Lunch Series. The dates and presenters are as follows:

- Jonathan Stern, School Social Worker at Pioneer High School, will be speaking on working with children and youth in a school setting, Monday, November 3
- Natalie Tucker, Researcher at the American Institute for Research, will be speaking on working in educational policy, Monday, November 6
- Vanessa Vaughn, Clinical Social Worker at Henry Ford Hospital, will be speaking on clinical practice and mental health in a hospital setting, November 10
- Hazelette Crosby-Robinson, Community Relations Program Administrator at Washtenaw Community Health, will be speaking on her work in community organizing and management, November 17