MAKERS is a six-part PBS series profiling the impact women have had over the past 50 years in six industries. Women in Hollywood showcases the women of showbiz, from the earliest pioneers to present-day power players, as they influence the creation of one of the country's biggest commodities: entertainment.

Tuesday, October 7, 2013 6:00 pm The ARTS at Marks Garage, 1159 Nuuanu Ave.

a film by Darius Clark Monroe

In this gripping blend of documentary, true crime, and personal essay, a filmmaker confronts his past, dissecting the circumstances that led him to commit a bank robbery as a young man, and his journey since that act. More than just a tale of a good kid gone wrong, Evolution of a Criminal is filled with compassion for human frailty and the knowledge that a person is not forever defined by their mistakes.

Tuesday, December 2, 2014 6:00 pm The ARTS at Marks Garage, 1159 Nuuanu Ave.

a film by Maro Chermayeff

A Path Appears goes to the USA, Colombia, Haiti, and Kenya to reveal the incredible adversity faced every day by millions of women and girls, while also presenting glimpses of hope and change. From the team that brought you the groundbreaking Half the Sky: Turning Oppression into Opportunity for Women Worldwide.

Tuesday, January 20, 2015 6:00pm The ARTS at Marks Garage, 1159 Nuuanu Ave.

a film by Llewellyn Smith, Christine Herbes-Sommers, & Kelly Thomson

Using the story of Gunnar Myrdal's 1944 investigation of Jim Crow racism as a springboard, American Denial explores the power of unconscious biases and how the ideals of liberty, equality, and justice still impact notions of race and class today.

Tuesday, February 3, 2015 6:00 pm The ARTS at Marks Garage, 1159 Nuuanu Ave.

a film by Anne de Mare & Kirsten Kelly

Three homeless teens brave Chicago winters, high school pressures, and life on the streets to build a brighter future. Against all odds, they recover from a life of abandonment to create new, surprising definitions of home. They will challenge audiences to rethink stereotypes of homelessness; their stories connect with larger issues of poverty, race, juvenile justice, immigration, foster care, and LGBTQ rights.

Tuesday, March 3, 2015 6:00pm The ARTS at Marks Garage, 1159 Nuuanu Ave.

a film by Thomas Miller & Kirk Marcolina

Decades before The Defense of Marriage Act and Proposition 8, one gay couple, a Filipino American and an Australian, fell in love and over the course of 40 years took on the U.S. government to fight for marriage and immigration equality.
