

Amy Van Syoc

Amy Van Syoc, a 2008 Milford High School graduate, is in the midst of her senior season with the University of Louisville rowing team. Van Syoc has captained the Cards' rowers for three seasons now and is coming off a junior season where she was named Collegiate Rowing Coaches Association National Scholar-Athlete and chosen as the team's Cardinal Pride Award winner by her teammates.

She earned first-place finishes against Duke, Dayton, Alabama, Kansas and Georgetown in the varsity eight boat, to go with a third-place finish at the BIG EAST Championships.

In the only meet during the fall season, her varsity eight boat finished second in the Rivanna Romp hosted by the University of Virginia. She is the daughter of Gary and Cindy Van Syoc.

(Photo provided by Michelle Hutchins/University of Louisville)

