

The Colorado Division of Workers' Compensation Medical Policy Unit Presents:
2014 WORKERS' COMPENSATION EDUCATIONAL SEMINAR
Rule 16 - Utilization Standards and Rule 18 - Medical Fee Schedule Changes
Effective January 1, 2015

Purpose

1. To update the Workers' Compensation billing and payer communities on Rule 16 (Utilization Standards) and Rule 18 (Medical Fee Schedule) changes that will be effective January 1, 2015;
2. To provide individual assistance with billing and payment issues
(Please bring your current issues with documentation – bill, EOB or EOR, and medical records – that justifies billed codes for a one-on-one discussion); and
3. To listen to your issues and concerns that affect injured workers' access to workers' compensation providers.

The Agenda will focus on significant Rule 16 & 18 changes including, not limited to:

1. ICD-10 – What to do?
2. Medical Billing Dispute Resolution – What we've learned and what can be done better;
3. Professional and facility reimbursement changes:
  - Incorporated by Reference document changes (CPT, RVP, and MSDRG)
  - Conversion factor changes
  - Addition of payment policies in Rule 18 and appropriate use of modifiers
  - New pathology fee schedule in Exhibit #8 to Rule 18
  - Psychiatric/Psychological and Biofeedback updates and changes
  - Clarified IV infusion billing and fees for different sites of service
  - Moved Dry Needling from modalities under PM&R to a procedure and aligned fees with Acupuncture fees
  - New Tele-Health fee schedule
  - Supplies/DME/Orthotics and Prostheses and Vaccine/Toxoid fee changes
  - Clarifying and updating fees for ASCs and hospitals (inpatient and outpatient) and freestanding diagnostic testing facilities
  - Home Care Services fees clarified and updated
  - Medication and Rx drug billing and fee clarifications
4. Opportunity for the public to exchange information between each other and with Division representatives.
