

UAH Class of September 1964 invites you to a Presentation & Book Launch discussing The Moral Work of Nursing

Friday, September 26

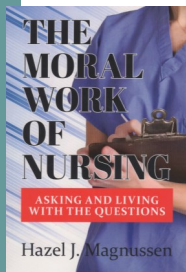

2-190 Edmonton Clinic Health Academy (ECHA), 11405 87 Ave, U of A Campus
2:00pm—3:30pm

Book Launch & Refreshments (following the Presentation & Discussion)
North Atrium, Level 3 Edmonton Clinic Health Academy (ECHA)
3:30pm—4:00pm

Presentation features: Dr. Paddy Rodney, Associate Professor, School of Nursing, University of British Columbia, presenting her research in Moral Distress, Moral Agency, Moral Climate and the Moral Work of Nursing.

Followed by: a Panel Discussion with Nurses; Donna Broemeling, Maggie Danko, & Dr. Anita Molzahn. Moderated by: Hazel Magnussen, Author

Hazel Magnussen's New Book entitled The Moral Work of Nursing: Asking and Living with the Questions reviews and integrates lived experiences in nursing with theory and research; is a blend of life story and overview of factors affecting ethical nursing practice during the past 50 years. Hazel is a graduate of the University of Alberta, a retired nurse with 35 years of nursing experience, plus further education in health care ethics.

For more information: www.hazelmagnussen.com

Dr. Patricia (Paddy) Rodney, RN, MSN, PhD

research and publications focus on end-of-life decision-making and the moral climate of health care delivery. She has a particular interest in moral agency and the difficulties that nurses and other health care professionals experience in the current moral climate of health care delivery.

For more information:

www.nursing.ubc.ca/PatriciaRodney

Please RSVP by Friday, September 19 to Fiona Wilson, Development & Public Relations, Faculty of Nursing by email: fiona.wilson@ualberta.ca or phone: 780.492.9171

refreshments sponsored by:

UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
FACULTY OF NURSING