

Mission Statement
Franklin County Humane Society
Adopted April 9, 2003

The mission of the Franklin County Humane Society is to promote humane treatment of all animals and to reduce both pet overpopulation and the resulting euthanasia of healthy, adoptable pets through progressive adoption, education, sheltering and spay/neuter programs. All pets are spayed or neutered prior to adoption or within thirty days thereafter.