

Committee on Ministry Training
Saturday, March 29, 2014
10:00am-3:30pm

Penn Central Conference
900 S Arlington Avenue
Harrisburg 17109

Who should consider participating?

- Current members of all PCC associations church and ministry committees
- Former church and ministry committee members consider coming back on board.
- Members of association councils-to broaden and deepen one's understanding of the work of authorization.
- Local church pastors.
- Local church leaders.

What will be covered?

- The principles of authorization.
- The critical difference between the calling and the authorizing functions.
- The ecclesiastical over-sight functions.
- The terms used in the Manual on Ministry.
- The questions, concerns and issues raised in the training.

How will the training be conducted?

- Case studies.
- Facilitated conversation.
- Insights from the experts-the one's serving in the associations.

What's for lunch?

- That's up to you. But there's lots of good places to eat within a short drive from the office.

What's the cost?

- It's free....
- But it's valuable!

Who will co-ordinate the training?

- Elizabeth Dille, Minister for Ministers in Local Churches, Ministerial Excellence, Support & Authorization Team.
- Thomas Webster, Conference Associate Minister for Pastoral Leadership & Discernment.

RSVP to twebster@pccucc.org. First 50 reservations will receive a FREE Surprise.