

re/entry

rebuilding
productive lives,
post-incarceration

a Policy Coordination & Training Symposium for Professionals with frontline programming for social service providers, human resources directors, criminal justice agencies, faith-based initiatives, guardians ad litem,

law enforcement, attorneys, and clergy in Ohio

May 1st, 2014

at Christ Presbyterian Church in downtown Canton working together to provide a holistic network of mental health, employment, education, and family and supportive services to ensure healthier outcomes and safer communities

re/entry

rebuilding
productive lives,
post-incarceration

a Policy Coordination & Training Symposium for Professionals

save the date

May 1st, 2014

at Christ Presbyterian Church in downtown Canton

Sponsors Muskingum Valley Presbytery, in partnership with NE Ohio peers

Presenters include Federal Interagency Reentry Council members / State of Ohio jurisprudence & social agencies / Presbyterian Mission Agency / Fortune 500 HR directors / and additional policy drivers

Hosted by Christ Presbyterian Church 530 Tuscarawas St. West Canton, Ohio 44702

Inquiries Andrew Hubsch event chair, CPC Mission Ministry 330.956.4627 / andrew.c.hubsch@gmail.com

For attending professionals and clergy, this day-long symposium will qualify for eight hours of CEUs/CLEs.

healthier outcomes and safer communities