Workshop Session One:

#1 - USA Mission Experience, Marvella Lambright: Come along with Marvella to witness, pray, sing and discuss the traditional foods and recipes of Appalachia. It is one of the poorest areas in the country, a mission focus of Presbyterian Women for decades. How and why have we helped? How can we alleviate poverty there and near home? What should we know about poverty and its penetrating effect on women, children and families? You may prepare by reading articles in the September/October 2013 Horizons Magazine.

#2 - Extended Radical Hospitality, Mary Cook Jorgenson: Participants will continue learning what it means to build an inclusive, caring community with radical hospitality exercises, Bible study and information.

Workshop Session Two:

#3 - Bible Study, Janice Catron: Janice will continue her introduction of the 2014-2015 Bible Study and provide ideas to equip you to lead the study in your churches and Circles.

#4 – The PW Story Continues, Carol Winkler: Join Carol to learn how PW is making a difference in justice and peace Issues and where PW mission is changing lives. Share your PW stories with other participants.

In addition to the singing, daily prayers and worship and the business of our PW in the Synod, there will be some surprises during the Gathering, worship and communion on Saturday evening, and the opportunity to worship with the congregation of Trinity United Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning. Register now for the best rate and plan to renew friendships and make new friends during our time together.
