

Crafty Kids continues in April!

SPRINGTIME GARDENS

with Mill Street Loft

Grades K-5

at Howland Public Library

Thursday, April 24 from 4-5:30pm

Come and create a spring garden with a Mill Street Artist. Students will build a mixed media garden using clay, paint, wood, cardboard, and other elements found in nature.

Please register for this FREE program by contacting Ginny Figlia, Head of Youth Services, at youth@beaconlibrary.org or 845-831-1134, x.103.

Discover what fun it is to see your garden come to life!

Mill Street Loft is a multi-arts educational center with award winning art programs such as: Dutchess Arts Camp, The Art Institute, Project ABLE and PASSWORD that changes lives through the arts. Merging arts and social services, we reach out to a diverse community, bridging cultural and economics differences.
